Space and Privacy

Looking for more room? Then this maybe what you are chasing. With just over 5 acres of very usable land you will have all the room you need for the bikes, horses or what ever your heart desires, and with the back half of the property being fenced off you can easily put the animals away if you don't want them near the house.

This 3bed 1 bath home will be great for the young family or couple looking for something to get started in the property market and with a few little touch ups to finish off what will make a great home.

Set back from the road and with plenty of gardens and tree's for privacy makes this home perfect for those afternoon and evenings out side under the starry nights.
